

Pit-Stop User Stories

User Story from the teacher's perspective:

Teacher opens the Pit-Stop app.

Pit-Stop asks if the user is a student or a teacher:

- Teacher selects the Teacher Tab.

Pit-Stop asks for teacher ID number:

- Teacher enters Teacher ID number.

Pit-Stop asks for class number:

- Teacher enters Teacher ID number.

Pit-Stop displays class template of:

Institutions

Classes

Homework

Information

Sources

Chatting with students

Teacher fills-in said forms in the template provided.

Teacher registration is complete.

Pit-Stop sends teacher to teacher home page.

Pit-Stop presents teacher with tabs and resources associated with his/her institution and classes:

- Teacher can add/remove classes.
- Teacher can modify his/her classes.

- Teacher can view students in his/her classes that are registered with Pit-Stop.
- Teacher can preview and/or edit resources.
- Teacher can communicate with students.

Teacher can go back to the Pit-Stop home screen.

Teacher can select other institutions to view

- Teacher can view their classes format
- Teacher can communicate with other teachers

User Story from the students's perspective:

Students will select whether they are student or teacher.

Students will enter to all of their classes via code.

Students will see assignments on their dashboard.

Students will see class times on their dashboard.

Students will submit assignments through the application.

Students will see grades in their grade book.

Students will see their feedback from the grade book page.

If a student has a question about a grade they can send an in app message.

Students can start dialogue with teachers or other students in app.